A Valentine
for My HUSBAND

The way we love each other And the happiness we've known Make special days like Valentine's Day Seem all our very own,
And Darling, here's a Valentine To show at least in part How deep and lasting is the love For you - within my heart!

sure do dislike taking you to airport this morning. I love you more each day and miss you so when you have to go to St.
Louis. Thank you for our wonderful new home!!
Will be thinking of you all day today! Love, Pat

February 14, 1976

Happy Valentine's Day Bud-honey. You are my sunshine, my everything! I love you always. (Our Mike comes home for today, Valentine's Day). Can't tell you how much you mean to me, honey. Sweet, Sweet and dd 7/8 4/4. Have a good good Day! As Ever, your wife, Pat P.s. I will list or sell a house for you today!!

February 14, 1977 : Dear Bud,

February 17, 1955
Does not seem possible that you've been mine for so many Valentine's Days. I still remember vividly the day I called my brother Marty (Sonny) and he came and ran me to the drug store to buy this card!
That was Feb. 14, 1955. I hadn't learned to drive yet. (Left you to play with little baby Mike, ^{was expecting him in April 1955,} ~~told you I needed~~ loaf of bread, or something, and left with ^{Sonny} Marty! Same old card - but my love for you is as good and new as ever could be - Love you Always, thank you so much for arranging for me to attend Convention in Dallas last week! You are wonderful!
Pat

Feb 14 1978

Dear Bud -

I love you very much you are my everything!

Thank you for helping me - all the time - and especially with all my real estateing.

Love always + Always

Pat

February 14, 1979

Dear Bud -- It's hard to believe I first gave you this Valentine on Feb. 14, 1955. !!
And I love you more and more each year!
Things were quite different then, of course, weren't they? We were a 1-car family, I ~~didn't~~ hadn't learned to drive, yet. I remembered I called my brother, Sonny (Marty) to drive me on an errand (that is, to sneakily get me

85 to the drug store so I could buy you this Valentine!!) I didn't know then this same Valentine would become "our traditional and one & only Valentine" from me to you for the years to come. Anyway, you were "Playing" in our basement on Catalina Street with your ham radio while Marty & I went to the drug store located, I think, about Pattie & Lincoln. Anyway, the drug store now long gone, but my love for you, stronger than ever, thru Winters, summers and springtimes, new babies and old babies, kindergarten, grade school, high school, college, marriages & rehearsal dinners, rental houses, real estate, bad deals and good deals - - - just lasts & lasts and grows and grows! you are Wonderful, honey. More Wonderful each year & I love you Always with all my heart. Have a wonderful Day today - - Smile often - - & think of me, often! Sincerely Mrs. Robert Mawton and P.S. I L F S W E I. also, still! (Pat)

Feb. 14 1980 Dear Bud:

Good morning & happy Valentine's Day 1980, honey!

Well, here we go into the '80's and I know, like the others, they will be good years. I love you.

Thank you for everything!

I do appreciate you and couldn't get along without you. you are my sugarplum, aren't you?!

Love, Always and always, Pat

February 14, 1981

Hello Bud-honey,

Isn't this a nice day! Sunshine and our Katie home from Iowa for the weekend! I love you.

And thanks for the wonderful trip to Australia. You are a wonderful traveling companion.

So nice to fly with you all those miles and see Waikiki

Beach and the Pacific Ocean with you; and the Sydney Opera house, Canberra etc., all with you. You are my Valentine, all year long. And my Puddin' head! Love, Always, and P.S. - Thanks for filling my car with gas + putting in real estate signs.

Happy Valentine's Day dear. Are we really going to England this year? And will we ride our bicycles around Europe? But we will get to see Cindy & Hanny's baby first, won't we (our 1st grandchild)! What a year this will be but most of all another good year with you, honey. I love you. you are marvelous, the eighth wonder of the world, you might say!

Love, Always
Pat

P.S. Maybe Charlie will come from Australia and meet us in England!?

February 14, 1983

Good Morning Bud-honey and

Happy Valentine's!

Day 1983

And just think we (you & me) are Grandparents -- You are too young-looking for that -- but then isn't our Crystal Ann wonderful! And thanks for helping this year in opening Mpton

Real Estate, Inc. You kno I could ~~do~~ it without you (math & all)!

Have a good day

Love, always and always
Pat

AND P.S. Didn't we survive a year on Weddings: Jim & Karen, Katie and Tim!

Valentine Day 1984

Dear Bud-honey, to wake in the morning and walk into the kitchen with your flowers on the table! What a surprise! Beautiful, bright yellow! you are my Sweetheart Valentine more and more each year. For 30 Valentine Days! Unbelievable! time really does fly when you're having fun! My life has been fun with you. (and this year when we do our bike trip to Arizona will really top it off won't it?!)

Hard to believe we are Grandparents again this year. Now we have our Wonderful little Jenny Nell and our Wonderful little Crystal Ann.

Aren't they cute - And they get anything and everything they want from you. you are sweet!

I love you so much -- Always
Pat

1985 Feb 14 -- HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY, TO BUD:

Well, honey this year our 1st Grandson was born!
Little Chase Robert Manton on Aug. 15, 1984 and I'm so glad Danny & Cindy named him the Robert after you.
You are my sunshine, really and I love you very much. Thanks for another wonderful year.

U R My Valentine. Here we are with our three little Grandchildren and Karen and Jim expecting our 4th one can you believe it?! It seems like only a very few years ago that I "found" you ... love you more each year.

P.S. Is this Valentine card getting yellow with age? over Pat February 14, 1986 to be opened on that day!

Dear Bud - - I know I am going to miss you something terrible this Valentine's Day - - I love you very much honey.
I'm looking forward to 30 days (about) when I will be driving to the airport to bring you home!
Please take care of yourself, meanwhile!

We have had another great year and a new little Amy to add to our wonderful Matton family. I'm making this an early (Jan. 13) quick note to get it hid in your suitcase before you leave tomorrow for Saudi Arabia!

Dear Bud-honey -- So happy you're home with me instead of far off Saudi Arabia as last year or California as you will be next month.

And our old Valentine here traveled the world last year and got lost for a few weeks in Saudi Arabia, since I tucked it in your luggage to be a surprise to you when you arrived there.

We've had a wonderful year with our well and happy little grandchildren, Crystal Annie, Jenny Nell, Chase Robert, Amy Girl and our marvelous baby Shane born Feb 28, 1986.

Charlie played Guitar and sang with his band last night at USU, Molly will graduate in May from USU (with honors) with a Math degree, Danny ^{our mailman} and his wonderful Cindy are good & happy parents of three, Jim (USU graduate) with his good Karen are anxiously expecting their 2nd little one in May, Patrick with UCLA is in Los Alamos, N.M. studying towards his PhD in Physics, our wonderful Katie Nell is here with us with her beautiful little Jenny Nell Age 3 yrs, for a little while til she gets settled with a teaching contract (meanwhile substitute teaching) and 1987

P.S. Thanks so much for helping me welcome Don & Judy family for our wonderful visit this year!

Dear Bud, my love captive:
Happy Valentine's Day 1988, honey! It's been a good but very busy year with our Judy, Nell and family, Don, Sarah and Emma Kate coming from Australia and you were wonderful (as usual) to my whole family (all 12 of them) at our various "Welcome home Judy and Don" activities, especially... appreciated your going out for Pizza for everyone ~~at~~ Judy - Don: Farewell - Bon Voyage

Party!

And we became Grandparents again this year with Jim and Karen's little Sara.

Crystal, Jenny, Chase,
Amy, Shane, Sara!!
Aren't we lucky!

1988 is going Great so far -- I love you more and more and look forward to our Balloon Ride (thanks Mike and Patrick) And our trip to Phoenix in a couple of weeks!! you are wonderful; So glad I got you! Love, Pat.

1989

Dear Bud-honey, Happy Valentine's Day 1989, love you with all my heart more and more each day. Only wonderful you would give a Wife a jewelry box full of money to take a bicycle trip to Ireland with my sisters (and Molly, I hope) this summer.

Here we are, next month, both 60 years old, growing older and wiser, having a wonderful life together with our good children and grand children around us. I've never had it so good, you make me very happy. Here's looking forward to a wonderful "after 60" life with YOU! your wife,
Pat

February 14, 1990,

Well honey this makes about 37 Valentines ^{that} I've known you -- 1990 sounds far away but here it is and here we are -- this will ~~probably~~ be a wonderful year of change for us.
Living in Las Cruces with you (or any where else will be fun)! you are my sweetheart -- I love you very much - - -

Pat

And P.S.: Thanks ^{for} getting me off on my great 60th Birthday celebration bicycle trip across Ireland with Judy, Mike and Britchie! you are one in a million -- my hero -- my sweet!

AND P.S. Here we are grandparents again to our 7th little grandchild, Bethany, daughter of our Jim and Karen!

February 14, 1991

Dear Bud, Happy Valentine Day, honey. I'm writing this in advance since I'll be in Las Cruces and/or Phoenix on Feb 14th, thinking of, and missing you a lot. It's been a terrific year, hasn't it? With our months in Las Cruces, coming home early, selling our good "home place" 2155 S Lutan to our Nan & Cindy, staying with Molly girl after closing before and after left & returned from Las Cruces, AND now living in this nice ^(temporary) rental house!
All I know is that living with you anywhere - - anywhere at all, is just great with me! You are my everything! Love always, Pat Thanks honey for letting me run off to ride my Bicycle in the Senior Olympics 1991!

Happy Valentine Day
1992

Dear Bud-Honey!

And here we are out on our own 2 acres in our beautiful house in Belle Plaine, Kansas, having lots of company, you putting up lots of antennae's for your radio, me starting my quilt, playing bridge again, us getting ready for upcoming trips to Las Cruces, and Arizona and then Hayton in April! Thanks for this wonderful Retirement, honey, I love you more and more
always! Pat

P.S. And such fun to have the good little grandchildren out for overnights!

Every year is a great year with you -- Our Mike and Wanda married in March and we traveled to Texas to see them & their new house & the yard with beautiful flowers; And just last weekend our Charlie and Eden were married in California. Beautiful girls, both of them.
Our trip to California for Thanksgiving was great -- our dear Patrick ^{and Hui} ~~and Hui~~ (coo-cooed) sending us airline tickets -- wonderful surprise -- getting to see our super-duper grandson Robert A. Lin Newton (dear Hui & Patrick's ^{4 year old} Management Consultant), and huge beautiful new home in San Jose; and even Gedy - Nell (really Judy Collier, you know) visiting from Australia flying to California for Thanksgiving dinner making it about 1/2 the family with Patrick, Hui, Charlie, Eden, Mike & Wanda (flying in from Texas) & you & I! Of course we were both ready to end our wonderful 2-week stay & return to our Home Sweet Home right HERE.
And Gedy's visit, the first in about 10 years, was great ending to a happy year! You are my Fiddin' Head Love, Fat
